ABOUT THE CHANNELER

From an early age he began researching energetics, the influence of the mind on the body, mysticism, the symbolic language of life, and the intangible and spiritual realms.

He always felt a close connection with the guiding consciences of other dimensions, and with the invisible realm.

From this starting point, for years he has developed Universal Bioenergetics (Bioenergética Universal), a way of self-healing and understanding of the human energetic anatomy, to try to comprehend the relationship between the body, emotions, mind, energy and spirit. This technique is the development of his own research and experience, both in the therapeutic field, as in the energetic and mystical, together with the channeling from Masters of other dimensions, who have guided him in this synthesis of universal knowledge.

Today he is dedicated to teaching classes and seminars on Universal Bioenergetics (Bioenergética Universal) (face-to-face, webinars, online... www.oroalquimia.com), organizing initiation trips to places on the planet with very special energy, and where practices are carried out in harmony with that frequency (www.viajesiniciaticosoroalquimia.com), and actively participates in Alianza Universal (www.alianzauniversal.org), training people and leading vibratory work groups, to accompany and help the planet and those who inhabit it, in this transition to a new paradigm based on the Aureum Energy.

This is his third channeled book, the first was CANALIZACIONES DE UN MAESTRO (Channelings from a Master), Editorial Humanitas (2009), and the second EL AMANECER DE LOS ÁNGELES (The Dawn of the Angels) ediciones Amatista (2016).

A FEW WORDS FROM THE CHANNELER

Just to share, that it has been a great experience for me, as it always is, the fact that the frequency passes through me and that later takes shape in words. Each channeling represents receiving a part of that essence that awakens within me, so that in addition to feeling gratitude for being able to share that information, it causes an internal evolution and advancement.

In this special case, as channeling has been during the COVID-19 confinement, I can only say that I have felt the enormous power of this Aureum Energy which fascinates me so much and continues to surprise me, due to its harmony, love, perfection, balance, creative potential...

Each one will draw their conclusions and will experience this energy and this frequency pattern in their own way, but I would like to share that, although it absolutely has to do with the Aureum number,?? with arithmetic, with geometry and with many other concepts that have been studied for centuries about this aureum ratio, when they speak of the entry of this new energy, I understand and feel that it is something essential and that it is the origin from which these same expressions emanate afterwards. In other words, the knowledge about the Aureum ratio, the Aureum number and even at a more subtle level about the Aureum energy, obviously is not new, however, it is new that the Essence from which all those studies and knowledge come from is entering the planet in a massive way.

At one point in the book, it clarifies that there have already been individuals and even communities who have worked with this energy in the past, but the newness is not the energy itself, but rather that this frequency is now accessible to everyone and in a massive way. This is my feeling, although as always, it will be you who, based on the reading, draws your own conclusions.

It is the special thing about channeled work: the text contains a frequency that when you read it, it awakens something internally so that you can start working with it, if you desire. In this case, the frequency is the Aureum Energy.

I recommend you to read this book at least three times in order to grasp the subtleties of the information between the lines.

Enjoy the reading.

My best wishes

Rubén Escartín

THE ENERGETIC CALIBRATION OF THE PLANET HAS ALREADY BEGUN

This is a New Time on your planet and in the solar system. You are living a moment of planetary and cosmic awakening, since it not only affects the Earth. It is a stellar moment, in fact, we should say interstellar, where stars from different galaxies like your Sun are in a process of photonic irradiation that is causing the vibrational frequency of what exists to increase so collapsing what existed

These stars, suns are like communication points between the tangible and non-tangible sides of the Universe. It is a mechanism by which the atomic reactions that take place inside a star, cause portals to open and close, through which the Divinity auto regulates itself regarding the information and frequencies that must be developed. These suns generate electromagnetic fields which modify everything that exists around them. They are like guardians and watchmen of the life around them, and in the moments of awakening, they release photonic particles in a massive way to radiate and reveal what must be changed. Hence, a sun is the central unit of a galaxy, and everything depends on that star. For this reason, the great cultures connected to the Mother Earth of your planet in general have always venerated the Sun and the firmamen, since they knew that EVERYTHING, absolutely EVERYTHING, depends on the movements of this Central star.

This Cosmic Gate, connected to other suns, is now in a process of photonic radiation that is causing the old balance to rupture/ break in order to establish a new one.

This irradiation first causes an alteration in the electromagnetic field of your planet, which, by altering its internal balance, causes a whole movement regarding the elements and their interaction. Therefore, it is inevitable that environmental reactions such as hurricanes, earthquakes, tidal waves, awakening from volcanoes, floods are unleashed... because everything that makes up planet Earth, its essential elements (Earth, Water, Air, Fire, Ether) will react looking to tune into this new frequency, resulting from the solar irradiation. The planet itself is undergoing a process of adaptation, readjustment, and in the same way that humans adapt to a new stage, previously going through a crisis in the form of disease, emotional crisis, existential crisis, the planet is now going through its own crisis to eliminate the viral, which no longer has a place within it, in its subtle bodies, or in the kingdoms that live in it.

This internal and external cleaning of the planet starts a sieve, a selection of which frequencies are in the acceptable bandwidth in this New Position of the Planet, and which frequencies are not.

Planet Earth's Consciousness itself is being altered, new spaces are opening for planetary Consciousness where this living being that is your Mother Earth is creating a new space within herself. A New Space in its insides, and a New Space in her cortex, above it, because you should know that Planet Earth does not only have life on its outer part.

Like every living being, your planet has internal life and external life, like you incarnated humans. The internal life of the planet is made up of all the kingdoms that live in dimensions not visible to you and that are in tune with the most telluric, densest, most crystallized energies that are within the planet. There are conscious realms that inhabit these internal spaces, in the same way that there is the mineral kingdom which makes up one of the layers recognized by you on Mother Earth.

You must understand the planet as a living being, which, like humans, contains a whole internal world, which is not perceivable from the outside, unless you open up your senses and consciousness.

It is like you, incarnated humans, you have a physical body which you see, but you see it in its external aspect, it is the result of the inner life of your cells, of the interaction between them, of the interaction between the functions of the organs and much more. Inside you there is a vital microsystem which you are completely unaware of, only those who study biology at the microscopic level can see this functioning and understand then, that within you, there is life, and that you are the result of the interaction of that inner life. While you walk, eat, work, read... there are millions of cells, bacteria and other microorganisms that are living inside you, completely oblivious to the life of the greater unit, which is you. If you understand this concept, then you can understand that you are a cell of the greater body that is the planet, and that you have a micro life within the greater body, of which you can only comprehend and participate actively if you expand your consciousness and decide to become a conscious part of the planetary evolutionary movement.

Inside you the same thing happens, there are microorganisms that only live for themselves and fulfill their function without considering the rest, while on the other hand, there are other microorganisms that seem to have a kind of collective consciousness and communicate with each other in order to favor the greater body. That internal consciousness which is partly awakened by you as a human by opening yourself up to take care of yourself, not only physically with what you eat, but also emotionally with the type of thoughts, with the energies you allow in your life and with your spiritual evolution.

When you as a human decide to make an important change in your life, as multidimensional beings, all your internal life (cells, bacteria and a long etc.) must adapt to that decision and begin to act internally in accordance with/ in correspondence with that new frequency, this will trigger reactions of cleansing, detoxification, the releasing of old information, and this will surely cause a great crisis in the form of physical emptying through symptoms that you call illness, or also through an existential crisis... because there must be a rupture/ break with the old structures that will unbalance the system, therefore the old, so that this can be relocated in equilibrium with the new frequency. In other words, destroy the old in order to build the new.

This is exactly what is happening on your planet right now, you are experiencing the crisis of the collapse of the old system. You are like the cells of your body, which must change their behavior and frequency to be able to tune into the new. In the same way that you are the ones who decide to make a change in your life, and your cells must adapt themselves in order to live in that new frequency, or in the case of not doing so, they will simply disappear from that habitat, in your case like cells of the greater body is the same. Human cells that adapt to change will be part of this new planet under construction, and those that do not, will self-recycle to fulfill their function in other dimensions, but for mere vibratory reasons they will not remain on this planet. If the greater body increases its frequency, everything that inhabits on it must also do so.

Therefore, this change and shake up that you are experiencing is being experienced by all the kingdoms and dimensions of your planet. The visible ones such as the mineral, the vegetal, the animal and the human, and the invisible ones such as the elemental consciousnesses of nature, guardians and others.

This model is repeated in all layers and dimensions, therefore, you will see that certain species of animals, plants... will disappear, as they are no longer of use in the new frequency.

The same happens with you as humans, you have the opportunity to adapt, but it is not a universal imposition. The major body that is the planet has decided to change based on the proposal of the Sun, which in turn radiates the decision of its universal major body to ascend. Thus, it is a chain of consciousness in which each one can decide to participate or not in this evolutionary moment and they must decide from where, whether from discontent, the pain, the fear, the suffering, or from the joy of knowing that the New and liberating is coming.

Of course there is a transition process in which you will choose and position yourself based on what life confronts you with. It is not a choice that can be made from the intellectual part, but it is a decision to die and be reborn internally, with the appropriate adaptations that your physical and energetic body must make.

That is why, this whole system of mutation is going to happen in many ways. Through microorganisms that are going to enter your biology to provoke the crisis and therefore the possibility of releasing the old; through situations of existential, emotional, mental crisis, making you rethink your beliefs; the fall of the systems as you have known them up until now: the economic, the social, the cultural, the models of coexistence, the models of government, and a long etc. Everything is going to change, therefore, you are already at the beginning of the evident and unstoppable change.

As always, there are cells within the body that do not want to change, and they want to impair healthy cellular de-multiplication. These cells have the function of making it easier for you to exercise your free choice of whether you change or not, whether you let yourself be impregnated with fear or not, whether you are going to generate your own criteria or not. Everything in creation has its function, only that, based on your decisions, your next life in this New Time will have one quality or another and this you choose from within yourself.

That means that you are going to live the experience of seeing how people close to you leave this planet and your incarnated plane, for not being part of this new frequency, because they have finished their time of incarnation and ended their life experience, because they made their transition to transmute a memory that they had to heal, because from the body that they have now, they cannot see themselves capable of being able to participate in the new frequency and their Soul decides to die in order to reincarnate with a new, more prepared body that has gestated in this New Frequency and many other reasons that will result in them leaving their physical bodies.

This energetic insertion is progressive, and there are going to be stages, in which the different bodies that constitute you are going to adapt (in the case that you have decided to form part of this New Time and New version of yourself) and are going to change in their expression.

These changes are going to cause that what inhabits in you and has to do with the old model to begin to awaken, so that from conscious awareness, you can release it and transmute the effect of what this has been causing you since it has been in you. You are going to discover old family memories that have always been functioning and conditioning your behavior, your feelings, your prism towards life... and that now you must choose whether or not those energetic dynamics help you or not, family behavioral patterns, some acquired by imitation in your childhood, others by inheritance transmitted from generation to generation through the blood line

You are going to discover messages received in childhood that were engraved inside you and that have contributed significantly to creating your self-image.

For the same reason, memories of other incarnations which have always been conditioning you are going to be opened, so that you can bring a new way of living them and be able to change the information that you left sealed in them

All this moment is a moment of change in which the world will no longer be as before.

WHAT WILL THE WORLD BE LIKE FROM NOW ON?

In this change there will be a transition, and in this transition different positions will be clearly revealed. Humans in favor of the change in the paradigm of freedom, and humans trying to keep the old ways in the new change which is inevitable because it is cosmic. Control strategies for humans who have not awakened will be based on fear. This Conservative system on the one hand, but at the same time avant-garde on the other, is going to try to increase control over the population, both of the awakened and the non-awakened, implementing brake mechanisms to derive the implementation of this New System in its expression of Freedom and Evolution. We say Conservatives because it is their idea to maintain control over the masses and manipulate their thinking, consciousness and even action. And we say avant-garde, for using very advanced technology and studies on human behavior.

The change is going to happen and it is unstoppable because it has a cosmic origin, therefore there is universal support. What the terrestrial human must choose is his position and his action in this change, because the manipulation mechanisms are already active and now it is your moment to take part in it. First because of your internal position, and then for the participation more or less active that you decide to have.

It is time for the awakened to mobilize yourselves, to act helping to spread the information, helping to generate criteria, and based on how events evolve, you will have to mobilize and act.

This New Energy, which we call Aureum for containing the frequency of GOLD (Au in your periodic table) in harmony with the frequency of Silver (Ag in your periodic table), contains the vibratory scheme of harmony, of complementarity, of cooperation, of the encounter and recognition of the Feminine and the Masculine, of Love in its Universal sense, of the brilliance of the Spirit that is expressed through silver and gold... therefore, these qualities are those that are implicit in this energy that is entering the planet and that are going to be a support for this New Time. That is why it is so important that all humans who can understand this, consciously connect to this energy and get impregnated with it, because through you it is going to install itself on the physical plane of the planet and it is going to expand among human beings, providing the qualities that this energy carries and that are so necessary to install in this New Time.

As we have said, there is a part of your species that is going to try to make this energy disarrange itself and that, instead of cooperation, harmony, Love, encounter, androgyny... these qualities will be expressed in their negative pole so manipulating and giving a dark version of the moment and covering up the virtues of this new energy.

Therefore, disinformation is one of the most powerful weapons of those who know that the New Time is coming, and their intention is to install control over the planet and over life in greater depth. The desire for power and control overflows their consciousness and they will use all the mechanisms they have at their disposal to turn you against each other, so that there is not the necessary union that provides the strength for humans to unify and live from the Aureum Heart. So, understand that this manipulation has been active for a long time, it has been installed for a long time, they have been developing and using it for a long time and they know perfectly well how to activate situations so that your internal unresolved conflicts blind you and only make you feel fear. For this reason, they are going to use non-awakened humans (many of them with good will and the intention of helping) and make them believe that if they act in a concrete way, they will be helping their peers, in terms of the creation of vaccines, medicines, control measures over pathogens, control measures over the economy, over education (programming people to think and act in a concrete way)... Endless actions that will be supported by situations that they themselves are going to propitiate and that the critical mass, by not seeing beyond them are simply going to believe, and from their fear they are going to accept, as they believe that this is the best for the current situation.

That is why they have thought of a system of absolute control over the economy, income, ideas, education, health, the distribution of goods, the laws... in which the key is that some of you keep an eye on the others. If they can get one part of the population to watch over the other, this will help to have a greater number of watchers who are made up of the public, free of cost and effective, because you will never know if the one next to you, out of fear or ideology is part of this control system and can denounce or warn of certain behaviors that separate from these norms and laws that they want to establish.

Public systems that are at the service of this new control, under the pretext of guaranteeing the safety and health of the community. You will see how all this is going to be implemented shortly with much more evidence than up until now. For this, they need the approval of the majority of the population, because without it the system collapses. To guarantee the approval of the population, you need to experience emergency situations that apparently compel the responsible leaders of your governments to make exceptional decisions, for the good of the population. These decisions are marked from higher spheres than the governments themselves, they simply manifest what these global control units want to implement.

This is the type of model that these government officials and leaders want to install in the shadow of this planet.

By universal law there are the opposites, Us, who try to give you the tools and help you to take the actions to install the New Model, based on the energy that flows from your sun, and which is a replica of the energy that is being emitted from other suns, Aureum energy, Gold energy, solar energy, Light energy. Hence the importance of you raising the frequency of this planet, raising yours as individual humans and as a species. Observe these movements that they intend to make, and react from the support of the Aureum energy, in harmony, with love, not hating or repudiating those who make the decisions, but understanding that they are being manipulated too and that their free choice has been to believe that part of the speech, in the same way that you have decided to believe another part.

From this position of consciousness, then yes, act to help and reflect this Aureum support and you will see how by expanding it, the actions of this group of leaders cannot be installed due to not having enough support, not having enough people living in fear, apprehensiveness, in unconsciousness ...

The New Energy is in favor of a freer and more loving world, so as humans, within this fight for life, you have the Universal Aureum Energy in your favor; lean on it and move forward, your sun, your solar system, and the entire Universe supports you in this change.

WHAT DOES THIS NEW WORLD IMPLY IN HARMONY WITH THE AUREUM ENERGY

This Aureum Energy is an energy that is expansive, loving, creative in its most literal sense, that is, it contains the seed of being able to materialize multiple realities. This energy in essence contains the Power of the Feminine and the Masculine in balance, therefore, the capacity to create and materialize the Third Space or Cosmic Son, the New Universal Human, the Human who decides to take his or her place between Heaven and Earth. The Christic Energy speaks of this, of this Third Space, of this Space that is capable of creating something New, something that contains the essence of the two poles that form it, and at the same time, the combination of both creates something New and different from the two creative poles.

That is why this Aureum energy is so powerful, cosmic and Universal, it represents the fertile Essence and Substance in the Primal Receptacle and therefore with the Potential of EVERYTHING. This Aureum Energy comes to open this particular planet to the quantum and dimensional leap that it has been preparing for over time, as its evolution was calculated and accompanied by the entire Confederation that forms part of this Universal Alliance.

This is the moment of the dimensional leap, you have been preparing yourselves for a long time to enter the fourth dimension, and to create the vibrational structure needed in your bodies and planetary scheme for the next evolutionary link of the fifth dimension.

This moment has already surpassed the limits of the third dimension and the migration to the fourth is already taking place in mass, therefore, the gaps of massive access are also opening to the fifth, so that each human can make his leap at the pace that he or she feels prepared.

This Aureum Energy is the Avatar of the New Time, it is that archetype that was expected to unify everything that exists in a Single Time and Space, since it is the Androgynous Fusion of the two coordinate axes where the point 0,0 (x,y) is located, where everything comes together in an Eternal Present without precedent or burdens, so when you connect to this Aureum Space of Timeless and Spatial Eternity you access the fifth dimension of the recreation of your New Incarnation.

This means that you can reinvent yourself without having to disincarnate to be reborn. As we said earlier, some people will disincarnate in order to rebuild themselves for not being on time, for not having the strength needed for this change... but others will be reborn in the same corporeal receptacle, that must be calibrated to the new vibratory system, so that it ceases to support certain old energies and starts being the support for the New energies.

Your body stores chemical reactions as a result of your accumulated emotions, of your thoughts, of your actions... this means that for those who want to change their lives being in the same receptacle, you must perform a deep cleansing of this same receptacle. That is why there is a call for coherence with respect to food, the emotional, the mental, energetic and the spiritual, because if the corporeal receptacle has to be able to support more Light frequency that its own spirit emits, it must prepare itself for it. This is the leap to the fifth dimension, an increase in light vibration, photonic vibration if you prefer to call it this, which is no more than the result of the quantum leap, that as a species on this planet you finally begin to carry out in a massive way.

The leap to the Aureum Age has been called the Golden Age in other times, where certain civilizations opened locally a dimensional gap to the Fifth Dimension and in a localized way made a dimensional leap as a community. Now this leap will take place in a massive and collective way for many planets that, like yours, have been asleep and dormant due to the "universal cosmic dream", which the "Lords of the Dream" always take advantage of to install the "Dream Systems" on the planets governed by those systems.

The Aureum Energy is the energy of Awakening, the energy of the cosmic brightness of the Spirit in its expression Aurum and Argentum.

This spiritual Light is here to illuminate what had been hidden during this period of cosmic sleep, so that now, the New Human who feels it, can develop his abilities and take this leap to a new evolutionary link. Therefore, the scenario will change on this planet based on the quantity and quality of the critical mass of these New Humans who must awaken and embody this new energy.

This Aureum transition process has started and will not stop, the movement will accelerate and that is why it is vital that you start in your Aureum impregnation.

On the one hand, the energetic work with your centers, with your mental systems, with your biology, with your Image... must be carried out on a daily basis, dedicate time to impregnate yourselves and observe the internal changes that you are going to start experiencing with this. On the other hand, your planetary system is already at this moment of Energetic Calibration that leads it to mobilize the forces of the elements, leads it to destroy systems of interrelation between habitats that can no longer coexist in the new frequency. As Souls of this time accompanying and being part of this change has been your choice, because if this were not so, you would not be reading or receiving this information

This means that it is important that you connect to Earth again, even when you see it overflowing and it causes you fear to connect to it, because the mother roars so that those who recognize her, come closer to her and she can welcome them knowing that they are part of the New Aureum Frequency and that they form part of the same, because there is no difference between that Mother Earth and her mortal children who belong to her and integrate her. Carry out the practices of Connection with the core of the planet, with the sun, let both energies inundate you, reside in you as the humanity level that you are, let the Aureum energy be generated in each of you and impregnate you... Let the Earth adjust itself, respecting its movements that at times are going to be abrupt due to the necessity to change in many aspects the morphology of a place; some will be in the physical form, others will be the social, economic form... be that as it may, just support the movement of dimensional ascent and understand that all Rebirth implies first dying and letting go.

This leap from the third to fourth dimension and then and at the same time, to fifth, opens the door to developing the dormant qualities of humans who dare to break their own crystallized image, their own self-concept, their own memory of what they have been and the unequivocal renunciation to continue being that old version of themselves.

Therefore, on a spiritual level there is a prior renunciation of the internal Resurrection for those who do not need to disincarnate in order to be reborn in this state of the 4th and 5th dimension.

For years we have been sending techniques so that they could become installed in the humans of this planet and prepare them for this moment. Meditation techniques, evolution techniques, techniques for preparing the energy system so that when this time comes, there would be greater ease in adaptation to be able to make the change in the fastest and most efficient way possible... From different sources within the Universal Alliance, to which all of us involved in this Cosmic change belong, we have sent techniques and protocols through channels prepared to transmit, become involved and share these advances in order to generate enough critical mass, so that when this time and everything that is to come arrives, a part of humanity already has its vibratory changes installed in its own system.

So, these protocol systems have been designed to accelerate adaptation and make it easier for humans to access the quantum leap in a less traumatic way.

Many have been sent, and you will recognize them for having very similar discourses in their explanation and very similar functions: to raise the frequency of your energetic design, to facilitate leaving behind old memories, to help unblock pain anchored in past situations, to cleanse burdens in the physical, emotional, energetic and spiritual bodies... Everything focused on carrying out a process of cleansing and purifying the old, which overburdens and causes pain and suffering.

THE ENERGETIC CALIBRATION SENT THROUGH THIS CHANNELER

In the case of this channel, Rubén Escartin, the technique called ENERGETIC CALIBRATION, designed for everything mentioned so far, was sent years ago. Since then many people throughout the planet have been calibrated with this technique and some have even been trained to be able to calibrate others, and thus help expand this state of adaptation to the quantum leap in which we find ourselves.

We feel that it is important to spread the information about this technique and about all the ones that there are in the world, because they can help greatly in these moments of planetary transition. It is time to use everything that has been sent to support new energetic bodies, new mental patterns, new paradigms...

The Energetic Calibration is performed in three different sessions, separated from each other by days or weeks based on the integration of the human who is receptive to it. It is only performed once in life, because once the Energetic Design of the receptive human has been calibrated, this information begins to modify its vibratory structure, and it begins to function with the frequency of the fourth and / or fifth dimension, based on the evolutionary moment in which that human finds him/herself.

It is an adaptation that causes the consciousness of that being to begin to know new aspects of him/herself, and that makes it easier for them to begin to recreate themselves from a new internal point. It is like lighting up parts of that being, which before had previously remained asleep. They already had them, but they did not inhabit them, and that caused them to always use the same mechanisms of self-relation, which limited them from the probabilities of change that they yearned for in their life. This technique, like many others sent, aims to help expand the internal spaces of the human being, aims to help break down the crystallized barriers within you, the result of repetitions and repetitions of behavioral patterns, thoughts, actions... even patterns inherited from the dynamics of the family and their ancestors.

Each of the three sessions serves to open and awaken access routes to that part of the human that remained asleep, thus creating a network of internal and vibrational awakening in 4th and 5th dimensions, depending on the path which that soul wants to walk.

When performing these activations, memories and burdens are released from the information field of the receptive person who, due to their own life experience, have already been recognizing and even solving them, however in some cases, there are still energetic/emotional residues in their field of information, and the calibration eliminates them, for not forming part of a material that helps that being to raise his/her frequency and evolve.

However, there are times in your energetic and information field that you will find inherited energetic patterns, dormant memories, or active but undetected memories that are limiting evolution. These cannot be eliminated because they are part of something that you need to be consciously aware of, but when you calibrate yourself, they come to light so that you can see them and realize how they have been weighing you down in your life. Once conscious awareness is achieved, that memory can now be transmuted into a fuel of action and evolution. Therefore, calibration removes the residues of what you have been moving throughout your life, and helps you become aware of the changes to be made from that moment, based on your Life Purpose.

By raising the frequency and starting to live from a new dimension of yourself, certain values, certain attitudes, certain types of thoughts gain predominance, bringing you closer to a new way of relating to yourself and to life.

This whole process is integrated from the first session and each one of them activates a different way of communication with your Being, while at the same time activating different parts of the information field. At the end of the three calibrations is when the entire mechanism is already complete and it is from there that the authentic Calibration in your Life begins, as now you have the 4th and 5th dimension energetic structure working, now free to choose, you must learn to live from them.

To receive the Calibration you just have to feel the call to change and be willing to evolve.

The Calibration can be received with channeler/activator present in the same room or it can be received with the activator at a distance, because this technique works with the support of the Universal Vibrational Tissue that allows the transfer of energy through Space and Time. Therefore, it is not necessary to be in the same room, but the two people are connected. The one who receives the Calibration must be lying down, relaxed, receiving the calibration in consciousness, and knowing that the calibrator is at that very moment performing the technique remotely.

On certain occasions, some humans need more than three calibrations if you are at a moment of serious weakness, be it physical, emotional, energetic... then the calibration, in consideration for the weakness of the system, is slower to make the change so as not to cause a major crisis in that human, who is already weakened at his/her base. Something that happens on occasions, but is not the usual thing, is that the person who is being calibrated will notice that on completing the third session, he or she feels from within the need to receive another one.

You have to listen to your body, and one of the aspects that this technique awakens is the internal compass, communication with that part of your interior that knows what is best for you and where to go to find it. That is why, once these techniques are activated, then it is important to make a halt, to become aware of how you feel from having received it, what is changing in you; You do not have to think about what has changed, but "WHAT IS CHANGING." After receiving a calibration, every time that there is a frequency change on the planet, having calibrated with it, you will not have to do anything or receive another activation unless you wish or feel like doing so, because the ENERGETIC CALIBRATION unites you to Earth again and to your place on it. So for every leap that this greater Conscious Unit takes, you are going to Calibrate with it in a natural and automatic way, because your Energetic Design has already jumped on the bandwagon of Evolution in this New Time.

For those of you who feel an affinity with this technique and have experienced its effects on yourselves, you can offer yourself as Calibration activators for other humans and receive the training that we impart together with this channel during the moments of the solar solstice during the year. This organization we leave in the hands of this chaneler, as well as the function of providing the necessary information, so that those of you who feel the call to form part of the planetary Calibration accompanying others to receive their activation, may do so.

WHAT IS UNIVERSAL ALLIANCE

On a cosmic and spiritual level, this Alliance is a pact that has always existed between Humans of all the Galaxies, and the non-incarnated spiritual kingdoms and hierarchies belonging to the intangible side of Creation. Therefore, it is a pact between Guardian Hierarchies of Light and all the incarnated humanoids in different galaxies and systems. This Alliance watches over the evolutionary processes of all the systems and their inhabitants, providing each planetary unit of evolution with what we can in order to accompany them to advance to their next link.

At this moment, this Universal Alliance is working from different prisms to provide you, specifically you, with tools, knowledge, technology and guidance for your mass awakening.

There are a number of humans on Earth who know this pact and have decided to work under the dome and the name of Universal Alliance and who use these tools that have been sent. They meet as a group to carry out vibratory work to help human beings and the other kingdoms of the planet, such as the vegetal, the animal... and they collaborate with us in this moment of change.

Other humans do not know anything about this name of Universal Alliance (Alianza Universal), and they are also under our leadership because they have decided to work on this leap and change that has already begun.

What we want to convey is that the Universal Alliance is something Universal that goes beyond a name and a group, but rather reflects a Cosmic and Universal Pact between the kingdoms of Creation and all those who work in favor of Freedom, evolution and awakening and who are part of this Alliance in a more or less conscious way.

This is the channel (Rubén Escartín) through whom we send the project that bears the same name of the Pact, Universal Alliance (Alianza Universal), but there are many other channels, who are participating in this Alliance without calling it that, because they are contacted to fulfill other functions, or from other frequencies. Therefore, you must understand, that if you so wish, you all form part of this Alliance as humans in evolution, and if your prism is that of Cooperation, Collaboration and Freedom for all living beings.

Thus, it is important that you understand that the members of this Alliance are both non incarnated beings from other dimensions, as well as incarnated humanoid beings from other galaxies. So, this pact implies that the two sides of the same coin, the tangible side and the intangible side of Creation work together in a common direction.

For a long time the reality of our existence has been kept veiled, leaving this information available to only a few, but now you must realize that you are not alone, neither on the intangible side (hierarchies of Light) nor on the tangible side (Humanoids from other planets). For some this is already an obvious fact, but for a significant mass it is still not so clear and is even a negation. In this New Time, the evidence will come to light and the truth will be for everyone. So, we can only tell you that we are very close to you understanding that your planet is not alone in its evolution, you are not even alone in your solar system, much less in your galaxy.

From the Universal Alliance we accompany you.

WHAT DOES THIS NEW TIME OFFER YOU?

A New Life, this is what exists as potential in this process that is happening and all the events that are going to happen; whether you understand them or not, they are there to offer humans a new layout in which to re-create themselves.

One of the limitations you have for the change is your environment. When the environment is always the same, with the same actors, with the same routines, with the same patterns and dynamics, you find yourself locked in a loop that you do not know how to break. Well, this situation and the ones that are going to come, will facilitate for your layout, context and dynamics to be broken, precisely to have the opportunity to react in a different way.

It is up to each human being to take advantage or not of each of these circumstances created to help you break with what you call routine. This system that you perceive is an information-based system; based on your filters, memories, beliefs, experiences... you perceive one layer or another of what you call your life according to this. That is why we call it the Dream system, because in reality it is an internal perception that makes you continually see yourself through the external situation, and not the other way around. This mental system, created in turn by both individual and collective processing subsystems, is the world of illusion where anything is possible, you must only learn to handle its programming laws in order to overwrite a running program.

The Aureum Energy is a powerful AWAKENER of Consciousness, because it carries the Light of Truth implicitly, and that causes that bright and blinding Light of the Sun to expand wherever it reaches.

This knowledge is well known since ancient times by the wise and enlightened connoisseurs of the functioning of the human mind, and now is the time for all those who want to be part of this New Time to access by themselves to deprogram their mind and reprogram it in its new version. That is why, you first have to detect those corrupt patterns in your system (mental and emotional), to detect the devastating effects that they are causing in your lives. At the same time, detect how the political system, educational system, health system... follow established protocols, based on the interests of those who impose them; these protocols are changing. Detect all this functioning, because just as you deceive yourselves, they deceive you, as it is inside, it is outside.

To generate the antidote to the manipulation that is exerted in your system to program you in fear and uncertainty, you need to generate common sense and criteria. You are at a moment of misinformation, especially programmed to generate chaos, but what they are causing with this, by Universal Law, is that those of you who are awake, or those of you whose level of observation is already making you doubt about the established system, you are gaining terrain and you are positioning yourself completely on the opposite pole to the one they had planned. Even so, those who operate the system, know the laws, and know that by Universal Law this must happen, so the next step will be to detect those who do not want to continue within the control system. It is here where you have to be discreet and radiate from Consciousness and act with the support of the Aureum Energy. Share information so that it is available to everyone, use the same tools the ones who manipulate the system use but for the opposite purpose.

There are some of you who have incarnated to be an active part of the Christic or Aureum mass that must sustain this energy on the planet, and for this reason, this information has come to you.

Before incarnating some of you decided to be on the front line of action at this time, and with everything that has happened your moment will come to be there if you are not there already. Others have the function of helping to dismantle the system to organize another new one again, others have the function of supporting this Aureum energy from daily life and going unnoticed, others on the other hand must be visible so that others can discover what is happening; others will work from meditation to break the veil of blindness of the dream system and thus help more humans to awaken; others will work in groups vibrationally; others in groups of physical actions to counter the progress of the unleashed plan ... that is, anyone who wishes, can support and be part of this New Time, from the position that he or she Feels in his HEART.

Feel, and life will open the Door for you to take your place in this New Aureum Time.

WHAT IS THE POTENTIAL OF THIS MOMENT?

The Potential of this moment is to open yourselves to spaces up until now reserved only for initiated humans, open yourselves up to understand how your mind works, your system of co-creation of Reality, the potential that you have as incarnated beings, all the evolutionary awakening that you can develop, understanding that your machinery has been vetoed in its potential, and that you can now awaken it by applying this Aureum energy on the relevant activators so that the inevitable is unleashed, the next evolutionary leap of the Terrestrial human being.

Inside you there is information of a life potential much longer than that which you are developing now; due to your insertion into an artificial space-time those potentials were blocked, leaving them dormant and latent in order to exert a greater control over your evolution, which was synchronized with the Galactic Dream. But now, that Galactic Dream has come to an end and the cycle of Spiritual Clairvoyance has begun.

This is simply the beginning; therefore, you have a long way to go, but the really liberating thing is that you can do it within a cosmic context that finally supports you in this process. Until now, it was only achieved by very few humans and mostly at an individual level.

At this moment, the dimension of the Aureum energy is opening, which is solar energy emanating the Fire of the Spirit in its Androgynous message of harmony, and of an opening to a new self-conceptualization of the cycle of Creation.

In this access to the 5th dimension, humans can access to a change of lifestyle, a change in your way of thinking, feeling, acting; in short, vibrating, therefore it is a resurrection without the need of abandoning the physical body.

In this Aureum space that is opening, there is the Potentiality of Life in its pure expression, in its igneous and light expression.

Those of you who understand the importance of this message, the importance of this energy, this space and this potential, will access it in order to be able to work from it and with it. This space contains the vibration and knowledge necessary for you to awaken from within, it is time to wake up and use the communication channels with this dimensional part. So if you dare to question your beliefs about what you thought was life up until now, to question whether what we are writing in this book may be true, to question the laws of how the universe works, physics, chemistry, the relationship with matter, the functioning of viruses, waves, frequencies, mind, emotions... everything absolutely everything, can work in another way, that obliges me to have to relearn how to live as if I had changed planet; only when you dare to question everything, will your recreation potential in this Time be infinite.

Those of you who believe, are going to create, so observe what you believe about life, about this process and about how Creation works, because you can start creating something new, beyond what they have planned that it should be, as each Human will project different worlds, and it is there where you must choose where to add, in what kind of world.

From this Opportunity for change, we accompany you and bless you for your courage in creating a Freer and Loving World for Humanity.

With all our support from the Universal Alliance.

ACTIVATIONS YOU CAN PERFORM

Any human who wishes to work with this recognition of the Aureum energy, only has to connect themselves to it from an altered state of consciousness so that the experience is not intellectual, but vibratory.

Each one can use the technique that is most comfortable for them, with the one that they usually practice or with the one that is most related to them, the important thing is that the frequency of the brain can be altered so that it opens up to work from another space. You can use relaxation techniques, visualization, meditation, energetics... in short, any support that helps you change your mental and emotional state, to open the door to the world of vibration and frequencies.

Once you feel that your mental state has changed and that you enter the vibratory dimension, simply connect from your heart with the Aureum Energy. This energy is in the cosmos, it is in the Sun, it is around the planet, it is inside the planet, it is in you... you just have to recognize it and give it the necessary space so that it can act and help you to carry out the internal transformation that your Soul requires.

Connect to this Aureum energy in any of the spaces that we have named to you, to the one that is most comfortable for you. You can connect with this energy in the cosmos and feel how it descends through the universal vibratory tissue, which connects everything until it reaches you, feel how it impregnates you, bathes you, receives you, and open yourself up so that your inner life also receives this frequency of Potentiality, of Love, of harmony... Feel how the cells of your body receive this nourishment from the Spirit, your tissues, your organs, your systems, your physical body, your subtle bodies, all your BEING.

Stay feeling the presence of this Aureum Energy in you, inside you, around you, in your life, feel it in the air you breathe...

Remain in that state of consciousness for as long as you wish and to finish, simply give THANKS to Life, to the Aureum Energy, to the Universe... and finalize by taking three deep breaths feeling this energy HERE WITH YOU.

Repeat the exercise, if possible every day, to open the doors to this Aureum state that you are gradually going to generate/produce? from within you. With constant work, you will feel with enormous emotion and joy how you change, how you naturally understand new concepts of life, how certain decisions that you had postponed are awakened from within you to close unfinished cycles... and much more than that to those of you who want to live the experience, we assure you it will help you in this adaptation to the New Time.

This daily practice can be done by every human being versed or not in the meditative arts, in the energetic sciences or in vibrational activation, therefore, it is accessible to everyone, and its simplicity facilitates its execution and effectiveness from the first day of practice.

It is important to carry it out every day to internally impregnate the organism with this Aureum frequency, and to compensate all the external frequencies that are interfering, and also there are certain frequencies that enter into you through the media, "communication fears", messages, beliefs, etc., that sabotage and try to dissolve this Aureum vibration. Therefore, it is important to carry out this practice on a daily basis for as long as you need in order to feel that sensation, each time it will be more evident that the Harmony of the Aureum energy is active within you.

We wish from our HEART, that this very special evolutionary moment that you are living, is the MOMENT of the Resurgence of Consciousness in its highest expression, because by Universal Law, it is legitimate for you to develop towards your next Evolutionary level.

With you,

UNIVERSAL ALLIANCE
